MODULAR RETRACTABLE FABRIC
PERGOLAS®
For Your Home or Business

www.sunairawnings.com

The SUNAIR modular retractable fabric PERGOLA® system is the ultimate solution for your outdoor patio space for home or business. It is available in many configurations from one single unit to multiple joined units to cover large commercial spaces. The durability of the PERGOLA® structure and fabric offers the convenience of a retractable awning roof, while offering protection from inclement weather.

The SUNAIR modular Pergola® systems are classic, modern and elegant. Ideal for residential homes, restaurants or country club patios. Constructed of durable aluminum powder coated frames with optional powder coating colors and textures. Covered with commercial preconstraint, water proof fabric with several optional color choices.
